PublicMediaWorks and Antibody Films Complete Co-Production of Feature Film "Donna on Demand" is written by / directed by / stars Corbin Bernsen

Los Angeles, CA – April 4, 2008 - PublicMediaWorks and Antibody Films today announced the completion of their independent feature film, "Donna on Demand".

The film noir thriller is the raunchy and quick-witted story of the last days of burned-out television actor Ben Corbin (Corbin Bernsen, "L.A. Law", "Major League"), on the skids and on the fringes of Hollywood when he gets a last chance at glory from an unlikely source: Ned, his "biggest fan" from a hayseed town in the middle of nowhere; and a foul-mouthed ingénue named Donna (Adrienne Frantz, "The Young & The Restless"). Together, the three create an unlikely online sensation... But who is conning who?

The film's writer, director, and star Corbin Bernsen notes the uniqueness of his semi-autobiographical project, saying "This has been something I've wanted to do for a very long time. The story behind the making of this film, the incredible talent we've found, and the partnership with Antibody all came together at exactly the right moment – presenting an opportunity to explore my own profession in a dark, quirky and comedic way. It's a very personal project".

"The opportunity to combine our independent can-do-ism with the amazing, veteran cast that Corbin was able to bring to a smaller project was great for both sides. On this film, we really found the makings of a great team," says Antibody Films' co-founder and "Donna" producer Jesse Lawler.

"Donna on Demand" also stars Susan Ruttan (another "L.A. Law" veteran, now re-teaming with Bernsen); Dan Lauria ("The Wonder Years"); and Bernsen's real-life mother, Jeanne Cooper ("The Young and the Restless"), and brings together a complementary co-production partnership between PublicMediaWorks and Antibody Films. The film represents the first of two features developed jointly by the companies: "Dead Air", a forthcoming thriller starring Bill Moseley, Patricia Tallman, and Anthony Ray Parker and once again directed by Bernsen, is scheduled to wrap principal photography this month in Los Angeles.
