“Donna On Demand” Releases on US DVD During August

Audiences Will See Auteur-Move by Corbin Bernsen, Who Writes, Directs, Produces, and Stars.

Los Angeles, CA – May 26, 2009 – This August 11, the Corbin Bernsen-starrer Donna On Demand will be released by Anthem Pictures for the US/Canada DVD market. Bernsen, star of television's L.A. Law and the current USA Network series Psych, pokes fun at his 1980s-celebrity image in the film, which he also wrote, directed, and produced.

Donna On Demand, billed as a “quirky comedy thriller” is the raunchy and quick-witted story of the last days of burned-out television actor Ben Corbin (Bernsen), still lingering on the fringes of Hollywood when he gets one last chance at glory from an unlikely source: Ned, his “biggest fan” from a hayseed town in the middle of nowhere; and a foul-mouthed ingenue named Donna (Adrienne Frantz, The Young & The Restless). Together, the three create an unlikely online sensation... But who is conning who?

DVD distributor Anthem Pictures will be marketing Donna to the public via traditional DVD outlets like Blockbuster, Hollywood Video, and Netflix. In addition, direct sales will take place on www.DonnaOnDemand.com, with pre-orders beginning July 15.

Bernsen notes the uniqueness of this semi-autobiographical project, saying “This has been something I've wanted to do for a very long time. The story behind the making of this film, the incredible talent we've found, and the partnership with Antibody all came together at exactly the right moment - presenting an opportunity to explore my own profession in a dark, quirky and comedic way. It's a very personal project.”

Donna on Demand also stars Susan Ruttan (another L.A. Law veteran, re-teaming with Bernsen); Dan Lauria (The Wonder Years); and Bernsen's real-life mother, 2008 Emmy Award winner Jeanne Cooper (The Young & the Restless).

Donna is the first completed of three co-productions between Corbin Bernsen's Team Cherokee Productions and Antibody Films. The second film Dead Air, a horror piece starring Bill Moseley, was completed this February; and Rust, a faith-based film again starring and written by Bernsen, is scheduled to complete principal photography this June.

About Antibody Films (www.AntibodyFilms.com)

Antibody Films produces marketable, high-impact, audience-friendly films and television projects. The company aims to release two to three original narrative or documentary projects per year, either as theatrical releases, straight-to-video or original cable programming. Producers Chris Aronoff and Jesse Lawler oversee all company operations and film productions, while eagerly collaborating with outside artists and financial partners. Writers interested in submitting material to Antibody should send a brief query letter to submissions@AntibodyFilms.com.

About Team Cherokee Productions (www.TeamCherokeeProductions.com)

Team Cherokee Productions is engaged in the development, production, marketing and distribution of “tailor made” entertainment in both film and television for specifically targeted, “fan based” audiences. By targeting these specific “dedicated” consumers, Team Cherokee Productions is able to streamline the processes associated with development, production, marketing and distribution, thus significantly reducing costs at each stage and ultimately enhancing the overall revenues generated by each project.
